Speeding Cases Head Heavy Court Docket

Judge Charles F. P. Crawley handed down some stiff sentences in cases involving driving while under the influence of intoxicants as he disposed of an unusually heavy docket in General District Court July 24.

Bobby Louis Hubbard of Red House was fined $200.00, had his driving permit revoked for 12 months and was sentenced to 30 days in jail for driving under the influence of intoxicants. The jail term was suspended.

Two Roanoke men, Elmer Conrad Spickard and David M. Cartrett were given like sentences for the same offense while Robert Anderson Daniel of Appomattox was given the same sentence and an additional fine of $11.50 for being drunk in public.

Linda May Callaham and Howard Lee Farris, both of Lynchburg, were also fined $200.00, had their permits revoked for 12 months and received 30 day suspended jail sentences. Both also had their driving permits revoked for an additional 90 days for refusing to take a blood or breath test.

In other court action Judge Crawley certified two cases to the grand jury. James Douglas Mann of Appomattox was certified to the grand jury on two counts of breaking and entering.

Harold Lee Doss, Appomattox, was also sent to the grand jury on charges of driving under the influence on intoxicants and refusing to take a bloor or breath test.

Robert Michael Page of Appomattox waived a pre trial hearing in a companion case to that of Doss. Page's case will be tried in circuit court.

"BETTER IS THE END OF A THING THAN THE BEGINNING THEREOF" Ecclesiastes 7:8

Look at David's Lord and Master; see His beginning. He was despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. Would you see the end? He sits at His Father's right hand, expecting until His enemies be made His footstool. "As He is, so are we also in this world." You must bear the cross, or you shall never wear the crown; you must wade through the mire, or you shall never walk the golden pavement. Cheer up, then, poor Christian. "Better is the end of a thing than the beginning of it."

See the creeping worm, how contemptible its appearance! It is the beginning of a thing. Mark that insect with gorgeous wings, playing in the sunbeams, full of happiness and life; that is the end thereof. That caterpillar is yourself, until you are wrapped up in death; but when Christ shall appear you shall be like Him, for you shall see Him as He is. Be content to be like Him, a worm and no man, that like Him you may be satisfied when you wake up in His likeness.

That rough-looking diamond is put upon the wheel of the lapidary. He cuts it on all sides. It loses much-much that seemed costly to itself. The king is crowned; the diadem is put upon the monarch's head with trumpet's joyful sound. A glittering ray flashes from the coronet, and it beams from that very diamond which was just now so sorely vexed by the lapidary. You may venture to compare yourself to such a diamond, for you are one of God's people; and this is the time of the cutting process. Let faith and patience have their perfect work, for in the day when the crown shall be set upon the head of the King, Immortal, Eternal, Invisible, one ray of glory shall stream from you. "They shall be Mine," says the Lord, "in the day when I make up My jewels." "Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof."
